Postcards from Marrakech Marrakech was a city that constantly surprised me. Around every corner was something new to discover – one minute you can feel hot, flustered and quite overwhelmed by the hum and bustle of the souk and then the next, you'll feel calm and cool as you step into the air-conditioned mini havens of a riad or a restaurant.

Our story actually begins nearly 10 months ago, during my very first visit to Marrakech. From the moment I stepped into the first riad on our Journey (Le Riad Yasmine), I was sold.In the days following, I was pushed further into my love affair with the city – from the bustling and chaotic souks and oases to be found within to the winding country and valley roads, there was nothing that didn ...
